The holiday season is a wonderful time to visit New Orleans. The comfortable and luxurious hotels of the Collection will be attractively decorated and restaurants of hotels will be participating in the city's special tradition of Reveillon, a Christmas season dining extravaganza at remarkable prices.

At the Bourbon Orleans Hotel, the traditional "Brunch with Santa" will be featured on December 9, 16 and 23 in the historic Orleans Ballroom with seatings at 10:00am and 1:00pm each day. The popular Christmas brunch for families combines the best of a visit to the historic French Quarter decked out in holiday decorations with the convenience of a delightful family meal, easy valet parking and church services at nearby St. Louis Cathedral if desired. Historical characters interact with guests and offer Christmas stockings and other holiday treats to dinners. Photographs with Santa will also be available. Reservations can be made by calling (504) 571-4572 between 9:00am and 5:00pm weekdays. Learn more at www.bourbonorleans.com/santa.

The Crowne Plaza New Orleans Airport Hotel, another fine New Orleans Hotel Collection property will again present its popular "Gingerbread Tea" on Saturday, December 8, 2012 from 11:00am to 2:00pm. Holiday elves will serve hot cocoa, while children can have their pictures taken with Santa. Guests will enjoy sweets and candies at the Candy Land station. More information is available at www.cpneworleansairport.com/tea or by calling (504) 463-7012.
