

St. Ann Marie Antoinette and St. Louis hotels Join The New Orleans Hotel Collection

New Orleans, LA October 7, 2009 - The 66-room St. Ann/Marie Antoinette Hotel and the 97-room Saint Louis Hotel, both in the French Quarter are the newest members to the New Orleans Hotel Collection portfolio.

The St. Ann/Marie Antoinette and its sister property, the Saint Louis Hotel, are centrally located in the heart of New Orleans' historic French Quarter, just a half-block from Bourbon and Royal Streets, within walking distance of New Orleans' unique attractions that include antique shops, art galleries, Jackson Square, and the Aquarium of the Americas. Both also are convenient to the New Orleans Central Business District, Harrah's Casino, the New Orleans Convention Center, transportation, world-class restaurants and the city's legendary entertainment.

Located at 730 Rue Bienville, the Saint Louis Hotel offers 24-hour concierge and bell desk service, complimentary newspaper, tropical courtyard and pool and four superb meeting and banquet rooms, encompassing over 4,500 square feet of space. The hotel also features the critically acclaimed Courtyard of Louis XVI restaurant, currently serving breakfast and evening cocktails. Many of the hotel's 97 guestrooms overlook a Mediterranean courtyard.

The 66-room sister property, St. Ann/Marie Antoinette, is located a block away at 717 Rue Conti. The two hotels offer the perfect combination of Southern hospitality and European charm, featuring affordable luxury within walking distance of every major attraction.

The other hotels in the New Orleans Hotel Collection portfolio include the Bourbon Orleans (218), Wyndham Riverfront (200), Dauphine Orleans (111), Maison de Ville (23) and the Crowne Plaza Kenner (292). Including the St. Ann/Marie Antoinette and the Saint Louis, the seven hotels feature a combined total of 1,007 rooms.
